

ANNE
SAMPSON
ASSISTANT TO RENEE LEVESQUE
AND RECEPTION

As an assistant to Rehabilitation Services Advisor, Renee Levesque, Anne is very involved in maintaining the flow of communication.

"Accident victims and their families are going through very stressful times when they call us. They are going through situations that can affect their self-esteem. They are upset and often frustrated. In order to help them, it is important to listen to them closely and to understand their needs."

Anne worked for several years as a receptionist and data clerk before going back to school in 1987. She is a Legal Administration graduate of Seneca College, Toronto. Since 1989, Anne has worked as a legal secretary with law firms in Toronto and Burlington, and for the past seven years, as a receptionist and as an assistant to Renee Levesque in Ms. Waxman's office.

Anne was born and raised in Toronto. She presently lives in Hamilton with her husband.
